WHEREAS, the number of COVID-19 cases in Illinois has increased exponentially and across more locations in Illinois and is resulting in an increasing number of deaths; and,

WHEREAS, on March 20, 2020, I issued Executive Order 2020-10, in which I ordered all individuals currently living within the State of Illinois to stay at home or at their place of residence except as allowed in the Executive Order; and,

WHEREAS, in Executive Order 2020-10, I ordered all businesses and operations in the State, except Essential Businesses and Operations as defined in the Executive Order, to cease all activities within the State except Minimum Basic Operations, as defined in the Executive Order; and,

WHEREAS, COVID-19 has resulted in significant economic impact on residents of Illinois, including loss of income and wages, which threatens to undermine their financial security as well as housing security and stability; and,

WHEREAS, I find it necessary to take additional measures to protect the assets available to Illinois residents during the COVID-19 pandemic to ensure that residents have funds for essential items such as food, medicine, housing, and transportation; and,

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure, 735 ILCS 5/12-705, a judgment creditor may serve a garnishment summons on a garnishee for money or property belonging to a judgment debtor and, upon service of the summons, the judgment or balance due thereon becomes a lien on the indebtedness and other property held by the garnishee pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/12-707; and,
